Join us for the 2nd annual Sacred Heart Easter Egg Hunt immediately following the 9:30 Mass on the octave of Easter,
NEXT Sunday, April 28

on the north church lawn. The hunt will be separated into two age groups: 5 and under & 6 and up.

The Easter Egg Hunt is sponsored by the Altar Society, Knights of Columbus & Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Bulletin Announcements are due by Noon, Monday to appear in next week's bulletin. Thank you!

Can you imagine that moment? Can you imagine the stomach drop with dizzying realization: "It's all true. All of it is true! The past three years weren't a dream that ended horribly wrong." Can you imagine all the doubts and despair of the past days chased away like smoke on the wind by a rolled up burial cloth? By an empty tomb?

It didn't start that way, of course. "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." This frantic news from Mary Magdalene would have been another unexpected blow. After all that happened, now his body has been stolen? The love and devotion in Peter and John is apparent. They don't wait to collect more information or stop by the tomb when they have a chance. They run to the site. When is the last time you ran for something? This isn't a run for exercise, but a huffing and puffing bolt fueled by desperation. Can you imagine that moment? The fear pounding in their temples, matching their accelerated heart rate. Can you imagine the impatient affection of John, who outruns Peter but refuses to enter the tomb alone? And then, upon entry, "He saw and believed."

This is the drama of our great feast! The promise that seemed lost has been found. The dead are raised. Long before the Easter eggs and ham, we are invited to meditate on this divine reality. We are invited to feel the desperation and joy of that first Easter Sunday deep in our bones. Because it is not just Mary's story. It's not Peter and John's story. It's our story. From the greatest defeat can come the most awe-inspiring victory, and this is true not just for our God, but for each one of us.

We are called, by how we live our lives, to celebrate the risen Christ. How do we do that? Our faith in the resurrection gathers us here today to celebrate this incredible event. The good news is that the doors of eternity are open! We can now understand that the fullness of who we are will be discovered when we one day meet God face-to-face in heaven. Our faith in the truth of who God is and who we are affects how we live our lives and the decisions we make. We are called to love our neighbor...to love those who hurt us...to work on behalf of the poor and the weak...to be people of justice, integrity, and hope... to practice compassion and mercy above anything else. Our lives are meant to be oriented around the axis of the Gospel. Are they?

He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

We will spend the morning finding out what it will be like to be a kindergartener at Sacred Heart! Come find Mrs. Garriott in the lunch room! Drop off begins at 7:30 a.m., and all children must be picked up by 11 a.m.
See you then!

Come celebrate God's great mercy!

Sacred Heart of Jesus will hold a Holy Hour at

3 p.m. on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 28

to commemorate this great feast. The hour will include the sung Divine Mercy Chaplet, Scriptural Rosary, and the opportunity for confessions.

A plenary indulgence is granted (under the usual conditions of a sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and a prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on Divine Mercy Sunday, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, recite the Our Father and the Creed, and also adding a devout prayer (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!).
